Information Collection, Use, and Sharing. The DSWD is the sole owner of the information collected on this site. The DSWD only has access to/collect information that you voluntarily give us via the modules of this website or other direct contact from you. All of the provisions in the Data Privacy Act will be observed specifically on the management of personally identifiable information.

Information collected may be used as a basis for client response regarding services or intervention that may be provided by the DSWD. Information will not be shared with any third party outside of the Government, other than as necessary to fulfill the requested services of a client.

Unless otherwise provided, the DSWD or any of its authorized personnel may contact the client via email or the STB in the future for the purpose of status updates with regard to the transaction/service request, changes to this privacy policy, or other information reasonably necessary to effect the social service mandate of the DSWD.

Access and Correction. An individual has the right to ask for a copy of any personal information held by the DSWD about him or her; as well as the right to ask for corrections should any information be inaccurate or erroneous. To do so, please contact our Data Protection Officers, Maria Agatha D.

Angeles, Wilsam S. Cuenca or Gerome P. Rubio, through the following email address: soctech@dswd.gov.ph.

Security. The DSWD takes precautions to protect information. Upon submission of sensitive information via the website, information is protected both online and offline. Wherever the Department collects sensitive information, that information is encrypted and transmitted to the DSWD in a secure manner. This may be verified by looking for an lock icon in the address bar and looking for “https” at the beginning of the address of the web page. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, customer service) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers, where personally identifiable information is stored, are kept in a secure environment.

Consent. By using our system, you hereby consent to our Privacy Policy and agree to its terms.
